

NHRC Bangladesh Aids Ms. Fatema to Get Back Her Son

Ms. Fatema tuz Zahra Luky was used to be tortured by her parents since her childhood. She became mentally sick due to the torture by the nearest ones. In 2008, she got married to whom she loved and went to London. But unfortunately, her husband was a greedy man and married to Luky for the greed of her father's wealth. Even her husband also used to torture her. Luky conceived in 2010 but the torture was not stopped. In 2012, London police made them separated and police sent Fatema to mental hospital. And her 2 years old son Zuquwwah Layeeq Lahiah was taken care of by the government.

In 2015 after being mentally stable, Ms. Fatema got her son back and went to India in her uncle's home and from there her parents took her along with her son Lahiah to Jessore, Bangladesh. Ms. Fatema came to know that her husband gave money to her parents to take her with them from London. In Bangladesh, her parents confined her in a room and took away her son along with some important documents including her passport, visa card of London as well as money.

Somehow, Ms. Fatema managed to flee from her parents' home. On 17th November 2015, Ms. Fatema came to JAMAKON office to lodge complain against her parents and she claimed that she want her son and her documents. The Chairman of NHRC, Bangladesh, Dr. Mizanur Rahman had taken up the case with strong conviction in order to rescue her son and her documents. JAMAKON Chairman ordered Police Super to take action and rescue Fatema's son. Md. Shorif Uddin, Director (Complaint & Inquiry) of JAMAKON was given the charge of handling the case and he consulted with Police Super and Officer in charge of Jessore. Finally, Fatema was reunited with her son Lahiah and got her passport, visa and other important documents.

Ms. Fatema tuz Zahra Luky congratulated National Human Rights Commission Bangladesh (JAMAKON) by expressing her gratitude and appreciation of the initiatives taken by the JAMAKON. Ms. Fatema also mentioned that the effective and efficient intervention of JAMAKON have made it possible in establishing her fundamental rights as a mother.
